

The Riddle of the Harp

(Inspired by Psalm 49)

Gene Louis ©2018

Listen all you people; listen, all who dwell,
of lowly birth or high degree, of rich and poor as well:
My lips will speak of wisdom; the understanding of my heart.

As I listen to this proverb through;

The Riddle of the Harp.

Why should I fear in evil, the wicked surround me,
those who trust in wealth and boast of riches can not see,
that no one can redeem a life or ransom God for me,

Yes I listen to this proverb through;

The Riddle of the Harp.

Yes I listen to this proverb through;

The Riddle of the Harp. 3x's

My God will redeem me

from the realm of death;

He will take me to himself

I will not worship wealth

Our lips shall speak of wisdom;

the understandings of our hearts.

As we listen to this proverb through;

The Riddle of the Harp.

As we listen to this proverb through;

The Riddle of the Harp.

Riddle of the Harp. 2x's